Dear Fellow Member

EXECUTIVE HEAD CHEF STUART LITTLEJON

Stuart Littlejohn, the Club’s Executive Head Chef and one of our long serving members of staff, has tendered his resignation as he has decided to pursue a career teaching culinary arts as a chef lecturer in a further education environment.

Stuart joined the Club in 1987 as a commis chef, after six years he went to America but returned in 1996, so he has over 30 years' service with the Club - for the past 21 years as Head Chef and more recently as Executive Head Chef. His contribution to the culinary life of the Club is unquestionable and he leaves a legacy for which he can be proud. Stuart departs with our profound thanks and best wishes for his future.

The General Committee has decided to set up a leaving fund so that Members can have an opportunity to make a contribution in recognition of Stuart’s long service to the Club. Members are able to contribute to the fund by cheque, credit/debit card or online.

Yours sincerely

Christopher Sayer
Chairman
