

In Musical Conversation With Harry Christophers

Tuesday 26 January 2021

Former Club Chairman Richard Price is hosting a series of musical conversations on Zoom with musicians associated with the Club.

His first conversation is with Harry Christophers, Founder and Director of the choral group

The Sixteen which for the last decade has provided the musical entertainment at the Club's annual Christmas Dinner.

Richard talks to Harry about his musical life from his early years in Kent to his time at Magdalen College Oxford, forming The Sixteen and the range of music he has conducted with The Sixteen for over 40 years.

The talk will be interspersed with excerpts from recordings made by The Sixteen and from The Choral Odyssey, streamed by The Sixteen during November and December. The music includes choral pieces from Sheppard, Handel, Guerrero, Sir James Macmillan and the Salutation Carol.
